Grafton-Coos Regional Coordinating Council

The mission of the Grafton-Coos Regional Coordinating Council (GCRCC) is the development of a diverse system of transportation options in the Grafton-Coos Region. The GCRCC's objectives include:

- ◇ Transportation accessible to all; inviting to all ages and all walks of life;
- ◇ Collaboration among human service agencies, municipalities, businesses, and citizens;
- ◇ Expanded public transportation services and options, including volunteers, carpooling, taxi services, and rail, bicycle and pedestrian paths;
- ◇ Transportation within the counties and connections with other regions.

Participants on the GCRCC have included a broad array of organizations and individuals interested in improving community transportation services in the Grafton-Coos Region.
